

INDEX.

VOL. X. NEW SERIES.

- Aborigines, Publications concerning, 297; increasing interest felt in the subject, ib.; Africans in the West Indies, 298; scenes of Madagascar, extracts, 299; cession of Mauritius, 300; moral modes of subjugation, 302; treaty with Radama, 303; causes of its present state, 305; case of Haiti, 306; New Zealand, 309; steps necessary to be pursued on the subject, 310; notice of works, 311.
- Adams, S. F., Vivia Perpetua, 166; undramatic character of religious dramas, ib.; increased popularity of dramatic literature, 167; analysis of the work, ib. et seq.; soliloquy, ib.; interview with Satorus, 169; persecution of the Christians, 171; interview with them, 172; final farewell and death, extract, 175; commendation of the work, 177.
- Alexander, W. L., Connexion and Harmony of the Old and New Testaments, 152; congregational lectures, ib.; defects of the work, 153; neglect of the Old Testament, 155; design of the author, 156; analysis of the work, 157, et seq.; connexion of Old and New Testaments, ib.; deviations from the Alexandrian version, 159; Messianic prophecies, extract, 161; types and metaphors, extract, 162; Levitical institutes of Moses, extract, 163; the Bible one book, 164; its exclusive claims, 165; commendation of the work, ib.; letter from the author, 361.
- Annuals, and illustrated works, 597; Fisher's Drawing-room Scrap Book, ib.; Prodigal's Return, 598; Juvenile Scrap Book, 599; The Homes of Old England, 600; The Rhine, Italy, and Greece, 601; Fisher's Historic Illustrations, ib.; Canadian Scenery, and Scenery and Antiquities of Ireland, ib.
- Anti Corn-Law Conference, publications on, 344; propriety of ministerial interference with the subject, ib.; character of the conference, 345; its influence, 346; opposition shewn to the conference, 349; letter from Dr. Wardlaw, ib.; qualifications of ministers to investigate the subject, 349; sketch of the proceedings, 352, et seq.; address of the Earl of Ducie, 353; resolutions of the conference, 356; duties resolving from it, 359.
- Baillie, R., Letters and Journals of, by D. Laing, 633; Bannatyne club, ib.; sketch of the author, 634; proclamation of the Liturgy, 635; opposition to intolerance, 636; conduct of the Scotch clergy, extract, 637; trial of the Earl of Strafford, 639; bitterness of party spirit, 640; Westminster Assembly, 641; independent ministers, 642; differences as to liberty, 644; Cromwell's army, 646; Report of the assembly to Parliament, 647; commendation of the work, ib.
- Barnes, Albert, Notes on the Epistles to the Corinthians; see Ward's Library of Standard Divinity.
- Baxter, R., Reformed Pastor, 602.
- Beecham, John, Ashantee and the Gold Coast, 18; Sketch of the Ashantee kingdom, ib.; its Government, 20; Slavery, 21; Polygamy, extract, 22; Superstition, extract, 24; brutalizing tendency of the popular faith, 25; labours of the Wesleyan Missionary Society, 28; death of Mr. Dunwell, ib.; recommendation of the volume, 29.
- Beman, Dr. N. S. S., The Old Ministry, 121; preaching often disparaged, ib.; importance of increased attention to it, 122; holiness of the church, 123; necessity of prayer, 125; wrong conceptions of the ministry, ib.; consecration of ministers to religion, 127; improvement needed in preaching, 129; importance of practical sermons, 130; necessity of variety, 132; experimental preaching, 133; wise selection of language, 135; character of Dr. B.'s lecture, 136.

- Bible, Historic Illustrations of, 119.
- Biblical Cabinet, The, 278; necessity for such a work, ib.; defectiveness of its plan, 279; suggestions for its improvement, 283; importance of the undertaking, 285.
- Black, Dr. J., Manual on the Bowels, 607.
- Bowden, J., Life and Pontificate of Gregory the Seventh, 288; character of the Puseyite literature, ib.; their views of the priesthood, 290; intolerance of the party, 291; Reformation of the Anglican church, 292; mistakes of the author, 293; sketch of his work, 295; character of the party, 296.
- Bridges, M., Worldliness engrafted on the church of Christ; see Voluntary Church Association.
- Brown, W., Translation of Gess on the Revelation of God in his Word, 233.
- Buckingham, J. S., America, Historical, Statistic, and Descriptive, 388; importance of America, ib.; monetary crisis, 389; Indians, 390; New-Year's day custom, 392; state convention in Philadelphia, 393; visits to Baltimore, Washington, and New York, 395; Catskill Mountains, 397; voluntary principle in religion, extract, 399; agricultural condition of Albany, 401; character of the work, 403.
- Popular Elections; see Elections, the.
- Bullar, J. and H., Winter in the Azores, 534; novelty of the subject, ib.; ignorance prevalent in the Azores, 535; discovery of the Islands, ib.; Dr. Webster's work on St. Michael's, 537; Ponta Delgado, extracts, 538; warm baths at Furnas, 540; portrait of Alderman Wood, 545.
- Bunyan, J., Doctrinal Discourses, 119.
- Burnet, Rev. J., Church of England and Church of Christ, and Connexion between Church and State; see Voluntary Church Association.
- Bush, Professor G., Notes on the Book of Genesis; see Ward's Library of Standard Divinity.
- Campbell, T., Life of Petrarch; see Petrarch, his Times, and his Poetry.
- Carson, A., Knowledge of Jesus, and History of Providence, 413; sketch of the first work, extract, ib.; mistakes of the author, 415; character of the History of Providence, 417.
- Centurions, the, 487.
- Clergyman, a, Help to the Unlearned in reading the Epistles, 238.
- Coulson, W., Deformities of the Chest and Spine, 606.
- Course of Lectures to young men, 238.
- D'Israeli, J., Amenities of Literature, 431; character of the author, ib.; analysis of the work, 432, et. seq.; Chaucer, 434; Piers Ploughman, extracts, 435; destruction of the old aristocracy, 438; inventor of Printing, 439; literary character of Henry VIII., 441; his vacillation, 443; Edward VI., 444; Elizabeth, 446; The Arcadia, 448; Shakspeare, 449; Rauleigh, 450; commendation of the work, 451.
- Dissenters, duty of, in relation to Popery, 609; Dr. Hook's Sermon, ib.; Dr. Raffles' Tract, ib.; true idea of a church, 610; present excitement on the subject, 611; revival of popery, 612; character of Puseyism, 613; duties of evangelical dissenters, 615; duty of ministers to study the subject, 616; necessity of vigilance, 618; renunciation of infallibility, ib.; uselessness of ceremonies, 620; cultivation of unity, 621; necessity for the diffusion of scriptural knowledge, 622.
- Drummond, H., Letter to Thomas Phillips, Esq.; see Edwards, Edward.
- Drummond, Mrs., Peace for the Christian Mourner, 486.
- Dunbar, Rev. Sir W., Pulpit Recollections, 116.
- Edwards, Edward, The Administrative Economy of Fine Arts in England, 241; elevating tendency of the arts, ib.; rapid changes of the age, 242; government patronage of the arts, extract, 243; laws of copyright, 244; imperfect constitution of the royal academy, 246; proposal for the distribution of prizes, 247; ancient Christian paintings, 248; Popish abuse of painting, 249; commendation of Protestantism, 252; objections to plans proposed by the authors reviewed, ib.
- Elections, the, works on, 221; progress of Toryism, ib.; apathy of the people, 222; Tory organization on registration, 223; necessity for the ballot, 224; alarm of the aristocracy on free trade, 225; fears of the working classes, ib.; agitation of the poor-law, 226; Chartism, ib.; result of the elections, ib.; tyranny of Tory landlords and others, extracts, 228; remedial measures, 231; relative state of parties, 233.
- Ellis, Mrs., Summer and Winter in the Pyrenees, 235.

- English Hexapla, The, 418 ; plan of the work, ib. ; history of the English New Testament, ib. ; Wiclif, 419 ; carelessness of the editor, ib. ; Tyndale's translation, extracts, 422 ; Geneva Version, 424 ; Parker's Bible, 425 ; Rhemish version, ib. ; authorized version, 426 ; grammatical errors, 428 ; beauty of the typography, 430.
- Everitt, Miss, Wealth not Happiness, 605.
- Evidences of the Christian Religion, 117.
- Ewing, late Rev. G., 633 ; Dr. Wardlaw's Funeral Sermon, ib. ; sketch of Mr. E.'s life, 624, et seq. ; interest in missionary operations, 625 ; revival of religion in Scotland, 626 ; secession from the establishment, 627 ; Christian and mental character, 628 ; sketch of his works, 629 ; illness and death, 631 ; announcement of a life, 633.
- Ex-Dissenter, My Life, 89 ; ignorance of the author, ib. ; velvet cushion, 90 ; trickery and artifice of the author, 91 ; dissenting placard, 93 ; consecration of the Bishop of London, extract, 93 ; censure of the work, 95.
- Ferguson, Brief Exposition of Paul's Epistles ; see Ward's Library of Standard Divinity.
- Finch, T., The True Church viewed in contrast with Modern High Churchism, 362.
- Free Trade, report and speeches on, 95 ; arrival of an important crisis, ib. ; designs of the Tories, 96 ; taxes on food, 97 ; their removal opposed, 99 ; Sir R. Peel's conduct, 100 ; importance of free trade, extract, 101 ; the Tories and the anti-slavery cause, 103 ; committee of the anti-slavery society, 104 ; importation of foreign corn, 105 ; alarm of the farmers, 106 ; importance of the ministerial measures, 107 ; inequitable division of the public burdens, extracts, 108 ; importance of public activity, 110 ; correspondence of Mr. Giles with Lord Morpeth, 112 ; notice of Mr. Brock's Tract on the duty of Christians in relation to the elective franchise, 113.
- Grant, Dr. A., The Nestorians ; or, the Lost Tribes, 210 ; visit of the author to Persia, ib. ; communications with the Nestorians, 211 ; their state, 212 ; account of the Yezidees, 213 ; country of the Nestorians, 215 ; reception of Dr. G. among them, 216 ; value attached to them to the scriptures, 218 ; patriarch of the tribe, 219 ; prospect of the mission, 220.
- Hadfield, G., Address at Hithington, 236.
- Hewlett, J. G., Priscilla the Helper, 237.
- Holy Bible, The, with Emendations, 665 ; difficulty of translating the scriptures, ib. ; rules of translation, 667 ; stores of biblical criticism, ib. ; design and plan of the work, extracts, 668 ; heterogeneous collection of authors, 670 ; erroneous translations, 672 ; faults and defects of the work, 682.
- Houseman, R. F., Collection of English Sonnets, 568 ; variety of poetical measures, ib. ; introduction of sonnets, 569 ; Lord Surrey, ib. ; The Moon, 570 ; Shakspeare's Spring, ib. ; Beauty, 571 ; Personal Regrets, ib. ; Drayton and Daniels, ib. ; Drummond, ib. ; Milton's Assault on the City, 572 ; Warton's River Loddon, 573 ; Dugdale's Monasticon, 574 ; Bowles's Sonnet to a Lady, ib. ; Wordsworth's Sonnets, 575 ; Coleridge's Fancies in Nubibus, 576 ; Cornwall's Skylark, 577 ; commendation of the volume, 577.
- Howitt, W., The Student-Life of Germany, 683 ; pleasurable anticipations of the work, ib. ; state of the German Universities, extracts, 684 ; reformation in them, 687 ; greatness of their influence, ib. ; French ascendancy, 689 ; German's Fatherland, 691 ; the Burschenschaft, 692 ; We builded ourselves, 693 ; French Revolution of 1830, 694 ; exception to Mr. H.'s work, extract, 695 ; Songs of the Germans, extracts, 697 ; praise of Mr. H.'s translations, 699 ; strictures on translations in the Times, ib. ; criticism on the work, 703.
- Hutcheson, G., Exposition of the Gospel of John ; see Ward's Library of Standard Divinity.
- Intelligence, Literary, 119, 239, 363, 484, 607, 727.
- Isaac, Rev. D., Works of, vol. i., 506.
- James, J. A., The Widow directed to the Widow's God, 363.
- Jefferson, J., Agrippa ; or, the Nominal Christian, 116.
- Keddell, J. S., Dissertation on the Vow of Jephthah, 237.
- Kennard, Rev. G., Leisure of some Winter's Hours in Geneva, 485.
- King, Rev. D., True Independence of the Church of Christ ; see Voluntary Church Association.
- Kitto, John, Works on Palestine ; see Pictorial Palestine.
- Knapp, Dr. C. C., Christian Theology, 602.

- Layman, a, Records of Wesleyan life, 605.
- Le Bosquet, J., The Congregational Manual, 606.
- Mackay, C., The Hope of the World, and other Poems, 114.
- Magee, Dr. W., Discourses and Dissertations on the Atonement, &c., 602.
- Martin, R. M., Analysis of the Bible, 239.
- Maunder, S., Scientific and Literary Treasury, 114.
- M'Ilvaine, Oxford Divinity compared with that of the Romish and Anglican churches; see Oxford Divinity.
- Montgomery, J., Poetical Works of, 648; mistaken views of Cowper, ib.; improvement in devotional poetry, 649; usefulness of Montgomery, 651; his poetical character, 652; The Missionaries, 654; The Geysers, 655; The Alps, 657; An After-thought, 659; The Prisoner of the Lord, 660; defects in hymns, 661; autobiographical sketch, 662; Edinburgh Review, extract, 664; commendation of the volumes, 665.
- Morison, Dr. J., Homilies for the Times, 584; D'Aubigne's description of Puseyism, ib.; evils of an hierarchy, 585; its present tendencies, 586; hierarchies of England and Rome, 587; influence of the tractarian heresies on truth and liberty, ib.; character and analysis of the work, 588, et seq.; unity of the Romish church, ib.; rule of the church, 589; hierarchical pride, 590; cession, extract, 592; apostolical succession, 595; absurdity of a constant hierarchy, 596.
- Morris, A. J., Moral and Religious Bearings of the Corn Laws, 603.
- Mursell, J. P., The Principles of Non-conformity, 117.
- Oxford Divinity, review of works on, by M'Ilvaine and Sortain, 511; results produced by the Oxford Tracts, ib.; zeal displayed in the propagation of their doctrines, 513; position of Dr. M'Ilvaine, ib.; character of his work, 514; importance of justification, 515; how misrepresented, 517; tendencies of the doctrine, 518; sacramental efficacy and apostolical succession, 519; correspondence between Oxford and Romish doctrines, 522; distrust of reason and reasoning, 526; sanctification and justification, 527; subscription to the articles, 530; identity of the faith of Old Testament saints with that of the Christian church, 532; commendation of Dr. M.'s work, 533; character of Mr. Sortain's Lectures, 534.
- Peel, Sir R., works on position and prospects of, 458; position of parties, ib.; necessity for the resignation of the Whigs, 459; services they rendered to the country, 460; revenue, 462; courts of judicature, 463; conduct of the Tories, 464; difficulties of Sir R. Peel, 467; state of the country, 469; free trade, 471; scarcity of food, 472; foreign affairs, 473; prospects of the country, 477; feeling of the church, 482; uncandid conduct of the Premier, 483.
- Peggs, James, Capital Punishment, the importance of its abolition, 554; severity of Old English legislators, ib.; Lord Bacon's view of the subject, 555; remarks of a French author, 556; awful extent of capital punishments, 557; measures of Sir R. Peel, 558; origin of Mr. P.'s work, ib.; analysis of the volume, ib., et seq.; Speech by O'Connell, 562; answers to objections, 563; theory of punishments on solid principles, 564; progress of right feeling, 567.
- Petrarch, his Times, and his Poetry, 34; obligations of England to Italy during the middle ages, 34; sketch of the character and station of Petrarch, 35, et seq.; Laura, extracts, 38; visit to Rome, extract, 40; retirement to Vaucluse, 41; crowned as poet laureate, extract, 42; visit to Parma, ib.; opposition to the church dignitaries, 43; connexion with Laura, extracts, 44; death of Laura, extracts, 46; Gherardo, extract, 47; retirement to Milan, 48; devotional sonnet, 49; decline and death, 50; criticism of his works, ib.; character of works reviewed, 52.
- Philip, R., Life, Times, and Missionary Enterprises of the Rev. John Campbell, 324; high character of Mr. Campbell, ib.; sketch of his life, ib., et seq.; childhood and youth, 325; union with the church, 326; mental conflict, extract, 327; his happy experience, 329; correspondence with Newton, extract, 330; alienation from the established church, 331; labours of Messrs. Haldane and others, extract, 332; origin of Mr. C.'s writing for the young, extract, 335; Anecdote of Lord Hailes, 337; entrance on the ministry, extract, 338; settlement at Kingsland, 340; missions to Africa, extract, 341; illness and death, extract, 342; commendation of the work, 342.

¹ Opinions of Rev. Dr.

- Milne, 73; importance of a due regard to an author's design, ib.; sketch of Dr. and Mrs. Milne, 74, et seq.; animadversions on the author's account of Mr. Hall, 79.
- Pictorial History of England, vols. iii. and iv. 53; times of the Stuarts, ib.; war of extermination, ib.; James I., 54; Letter of Anne to the Duke of Buckingham, 56; Charles I., 57; state of parties, 59; the long parliament, 60; conduct of Charles, extract, 61; Cromwell, extracts, 62; Charles II., 66; acts of uniformity and indulgence, 68; James II., 69; White's account of the sufferings of the Nonconformists, 71; persecutions of Nonconformists by Queen Anne, 72; favourable opinions of the work, 73.
- Pictorial Palestine, Works by Kitto, 545; usefulness of works like the present, ib.; analysis of them, 546, et seq.; authorities, ib.; The Dead Sea, 548; character of the Bible History of the Holy Land, 551; high commendations of the works, 553.
- Platt, J. C., History of the Corn Laws, 489; derangement of our commercial system, ib.; introduction of the budget and consequent dissolution, 471; importance of the corn-law question being understood, 492; history of corn laws, 493, et seq.; their injurious operation, 505; plan of Lord John Russell, 509; duty of the country, 510.
- Popular Cyclopædia of Natural Science, 234.
- Porter, Miss J., Sir Edward Seaward's Narrative, 602.
- Private Calendar, Outlines of a, 603.
- Pronaos to the Temple of Wisdom, 118.
- Prussia, Prospects of, 81; accession of the King of Prussia, ib.; origin of Prussian reforms, 82; municipal rights, 83; classification of towns, 86; rights of a citizen, 87; rights of vote and election, ib.; town council and magistracy, 88; magistrates' pay and service, ib.; prerogatives of the nobility, ib.
- Records of Wesleyan Life, 605.
- Recreation, The, 1842, 727.
- Redford, Dr. G., Christianity against Coercion; see Voluntary Church Association.
- Reed, Rev. A., Ordination Service of, 604.
- Robinson, Dr. E., Biblical Researches in Palestine, &c., 365; unchanging character of the East, ib.; Bible interpreted by Asiatic customs, 366; object of the author's travels, 367; analysis of the work, 368, et seq.; passage of the Red Sea, 369; approach to Jerusalem, 373; Ain Jidy, 374; the Khâzneh, 377; Wadey el-Jeib, 379; Jerusalem, 382; Mount Sinai, 384; authorities of the work, 386; high commendation of the work, 387.
- Rogers, J., Anti-Popery, 115.
- Savage, W., Dictionary of Printing, 726.
- Sedgwick, Miss, Letters from Abroad to Kindred at Home, 265; general character of the work, ib.; Winchester Cathedral, 267; visit to the poet Rogers, 268; Joanna Baillie, 270; Carlyle, Hallam, and Smith, 271; Mrs. Opie, Chantrey, and Owen, 272; English Society, 273; rank, 274; Sismondi, 275; commendation of the work, 277.
- Shoberl, F., Forget-Me-Not, 725.
- Sortain, J., Romanism and Anglo-Catholicism; see Oxford Divinity.
- Southey, Caroline, Chapters on Churchyards, 237.
- Souvenir, The Christian, 725.
- Sterling, Captain A. C., Russia under Nicholas the First, 704; ancient state of Russia, ib.; division of Russian history, 707; population, 708; state of the Jews, 709; conduct of Peter the Great, 710; system of espionage, 711; Alexander the First, 712; Germanic customs and Roman laws, 713; new code of laws, extract, 715; state of education, ib.; literature and the arts, 717; slavery of Russia, ib.; burgher class, 719; spiritual condition, ib.; forces, finances, and policy, 720; Circassia, 723; prospects of Europe, ib.
- Surgeon, a, Animal Magnetism, 727.
- Swaine, E., The Shield of Dissent, 29; remarks on the title of the work, ib.; distinction between the church and the establishment, 30; Paley's view of the subject, 31; spirit in which the controversy should be conducted, 32; character of the work, 33.
- Tate, Rev. J., Paley's Hæmæ Paulinæ carried out and illustrated, 253; character of St. Paul, ib.; treatment of philanthropists, 255; opposition to the propagation of Christianity, 256; its triumphant success, 257; contrast between Christianity and idolatry, 258; plan of Mr. Tate's work, 260; analysis, 262; excellence and importance of it, 263; suggestion to the author, 264.
- Taylor, Dr. W. C., Natural History of Society, 137; importance of the subject, ib.; decline of speculative opinions, 138; natural state of man, 139;

- lost civilization in North America, extract, 140; agreement of South Americans and Asiatics, extract, 143; religion and civilization in Idumea, extract, 146; Egyptian civilization, 148; influence of Christianity on civilization, 150; false reasoning of Gibbon, 151; independence of Christian churches, ib.; character of the work, 152.
- Taylor, Isaac, Four Lectures on Spiritual Christianity, 451; character of Christianity, ib.; reserve of the author on ecclesiastical questions, extract, 452; missionary character of the church, 455; tendencies of the English establishment, 456; visible Christian fellowship, 457.
- Temperance Societies, works on, 313; importance of the vine, ib.; manufacture of wines and spirits, 314; wholesomeness of wine, extract, 315; statistics of spirit-drinking, 316; Dr. Thomson's mistake, 317; consumption of wine in England, 318; drunkards in Britain, ib.; usefulness of temperance societies, 319; adulteration of wines, extracts, 320; conduct of friends of temperance, 323; Mr. Parsons' books censured, ib.
- Thomson, Dr. A. T., Domestic Management of the Sick Room, 726.
- Voluntary Church Association, publications of, 1; character of present differences among Christians, ib.; results of contention, 2; influence of church and state, 3; character of present movements, 4; advance of the voluntary principle, 6; sources of enlightenment, 7; character of voluntary church association, 8; mischiefs from the union of church and state, 9; character of Mr. Bridges' pamphlet, ib.; Mr. Burnet's Lectures, 12; design of Christ's Parables, ib.; analysis of Mr. King's lecture, 14; letters of Dr. Wardlaw, ib.; essence of the voluntary question, extract, 15; national Church of Israel, 16; "Voluntary" periodical, 17; importance of the press, ib.
- Waddington, Dr. G., History of the Reformation on the Continent, 177; the author's former work, ib.; valuable character of the volumes now published, 178; comparison with D'Aubigne's work, 180; spirit of the volumes, extract, 181; influence of Luther on his times, ib.; extent of the Reformation, 184; state of the Romish church, 185; courage of Luther, 186; Luther's interview with Gaetan, 188; his letter to Frederick, 190; negotiations of Militz, 192; Reformation in Switzerland, 193; proceedings of the Senate of Zurich, 194; commendation of the work, 196.
- Ward's Library of Standard Divinity, 578; antiquity of scriptural expositions, ib.; influence of exposition on the Reformation, 579; its extension among the dissenting ministers, 581; character of Bush on Genesis, ib.; of Barnes on the Corinthians, ib.; Ferguson on the Epistles of Paul, 582; inferiority of Scottish divines in the seventeenth century, ib.; Ward's Library, 583; commendation of the plan, 584.
- Wardlaw, Rev. Dr., Funeral Sermon for Ewing; see Ewing, late Rev. G.
- Letters to Rev. H. M'Neile; see Voluntary Church Association.
- Wesleyan Methodism, works on, 196; prominence and influence of Methodism, ib.; origin of the system, extract, 197; dissenting tendency of Methodism, 198; state of religion in the days of Wesley, 199; influence of Wesley on his people, 200; adherence of the Wesleyans to the church, ib.; equivocal character of the connexion, 201; Methodism in British America, 202; conferences in England and Canada, 203; conduct of Mr. Ryerson, 204; proceedings of the British conference, 205; case, as stated by Mr. Ryerson, 206; conduct of the Missionary committee, 208; designs of the Wesleyan leaders, 209; results of the separation, ib.
- Wesleyan Takings, 404; character of Methodism, ib.; sketch of the work, 405; Dr. Bunting, ib.; Robert Newton, 408; character of the book, 410; Wesleyans as a political party, 412.
- Wollaston, Susan, One Hundred Sonnets, translated from Petrarch; see Petrarch, his Times, and his Poetry.

END OF VOL. X.

